Ammo Caddy with timer, online special at 6pm tonight, $95.00

ADI Powder Update.

2206H is currently backorder with no ETA

Pricing - The VRA has been advised on a price increase across the entire ADI Range of products for all new shipments.

Members are reminded that when the last supplier price increase occurred (August 2023), the VRA store invested heavily and were able to secure powder at a price that actually made it cheaper for members to purchase. Member support is vital for the VRA to continue to use "buying power" to secure better pricing for it's members (even cheaper than "Cleavers")

Hornady Projectiles -

We have received a large shipment of Hornady projectiles. 6mm, 7mm and 22 cal 80 grain. All variants are now visible on the VRA Online store.

Howa Barrelled Actions -

We have a limited number of 223 barrelled actions avail at $550. Contact the VRA Store for more info.
